NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Released: May 20, 2003

By the Enforcement Bureau, Tampa Office:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL"), we find Annetta Lovelock Enterprises Inc. DBA Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge ("Lovelock") apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for willful violation of Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended ("Act").<sup>1</sup> Specifically, we find Lovelock apparently liable for operating a radio station on the frequency 95.9 MHz without Commission authorization.

II. BACKGROUND

2. On October 30, 2002, two agents from the Commission's Tampa Field Office working in the Orlando, Florida area observed an FM radio station operating on 95.9 MHz. Using radio direction finding, the agents determined that the station was broadcasting from the Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge in The Village West Shopping Center, 6444 W. Colonial Drive, Orlando, Florida. The agents took field strength measurements of the station's signal and determined that the station required a license to operate.<sup>2</sup> The FCC's records show that no license has been issued for the operation of an FM broadcast station at this location on 95.9 MHz.

3. Still on October 30, 2002, the Tampa Field Office agents inspected the radio station broadcasting on 95.9 MHz at the Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge. The agents interviewed Steven J. Burke who identified himself as the manager of the Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge. Mr. Burke produced a business card listing Mr. Burke as the manager of the business and Annetta Lovelock as the owner. When questioned about the radio station, Mr. Burke led the agents to a room inside the business and introduced Everald Oliver Brown to the agents as the “DJ” on the air that night. Mr. Burke stated that the radio station had been located there for about the last two weeks. The agents issued a warning for unlicensed radio operation to Mr. Burke. Mr. Burke instructed Mr. Brown to deactivate the radio transmitter.

4. A subsequent check of Orange County, Florida Occupational Licensing Department records showed that Annetta Lovelock holds the Occupational License assigned to the Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge. Also, the State of Florida corporation records showed that Annetta Lovelock Enterprises Inc. uses the business name “Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge.” The state corporation records showed Annetta Lovelock holds the position of President of Annetta Lovelock Enterprises Inc. with a principal address of 6444 Colonial Drive, Orlando, Florida.

III. DISCUSSION

5. Section 301 of the Act requires that no person shall use or operate any apparatus for the transmission of energy of communications or signals by radio within the United States except under and in accordance with the Act and with a license. On October 30, 2002, Lovelock operated radio transmitting equipment at its business, the Rum Runner Caribbean Restaurant & Lounge, on the frequency 95.9 MHz without the required Commission authorization.

6. Based on the evidence before us, we find Lovelock willfully<sup>3</sup> violated Section 301 of the Act by operating radio transmission apparatus without a license.

7. Pursuant to Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules,<sup>4</sup> the base forfeiture amount for operation without an instrument of authorization for the service is $10,000. In assessing the monetary forfeiture amount, we must also take into account the statutory factors set forth in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act which include the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation, and with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and other such matters as justice may require.<sup>5</sup> Considering the entire record and applying the factors listed above, this case warrants a $10,000 forfeiture.

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

8. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT, pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Act,<sup>6</sup> and
